A glorious Democratic victory.

Putnam County Democrats 'did nobly.'

The Democrats made good gains but they wouldn't do.

We wonder where Charley Zels will get his endorsement for recommendation for postmaster.

Think of it. Morgan County went Democrat. Both Moss and Tilden received nice pluralities there. And it is normally Republican by near 300.

Indiana does not afford either party much opportunity to jolly and burn red fire. With Taft elected the Democrats can say little, and with Marshall in the state house the Republicans are not jubilant. It is a stand-off so far as the ability to "roast" is concerned.

We trust that the good Republicans who voted for Watson and his reputation to save the state will not be too much disappointed in case the Democrats do not establish a wide-open state. This morning they were prophesying this result and acted as if they would be very sorry if their prophecies did not come true. Such is the political point of view.

Mr. Bryan defeated is still Mr. Bryan, a man of power, entrenched in the hearts of his party. He will not be lost sight of because he has failed to be elected. The campaign has cost some men their reputations, notably the president of the United States. But it has left Bryan as strong with the honest people of America as ever. He will no longer be a political factor. He will always be one of the leaders of American political thought.

ELECT ELEVEN TO CONGRESS

Indiana Democrats elected 11 out of 13 Congressmen at the Tuesday election. Following is a list of the Congressmen elected:

First, John W. Boehne, (Dem).
Second, William A. Cullop, (Dem)
Third, William E. Cox, (Dem).
Fourth, Lincoln Dixon, (Dem).
Fifth, Ralph Moss, (Dem).
Sixth, William O. Barnard, (Rep).
Seventh, Charles Korbly, (Dem).
Eighth, John A. M. Adair, (Dem).
Ninth, Martin A. Morrison, (Dem).
Tenth, E. D. Crumpacker, (Rep).
Eleventh, George W. Rauch, (Dem).
Twelfth, Cyrus W. Cline, (Dem).
Thirteenth, Henry A. Barnhart, (Dem).

TILDEN'S EXACT MAJORITY

The official returns from Marion, Morgan and Putnam Counties give F. C. Tilden, candidate for joint-senator, a majority of 1437, over Thomas T. Moore, of Greencastle.

Following are the majorities in each county:

| Counties | Tilden | Moore |
|-------------------|--------|-------|
| Morgan | 992 | 6 |
| Marion | 992 | 6 |
| Putnam | 451 | 6 |
| Totals | 1443 | 6 |
| Tilden's majority | 1437 | |

TAFT AND SHERMAN
ARE ELECTED.Republicans Carry New York, Successful Candidates Will Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and West Virginia.
Have Large Majority in Electoral College.

New York, Nov. 4.—The next president of the United States will be William Howard Taft, Republican, of Ohio. The next vice president will be James Schoolcraft Sherman, Republican, of New York.

This is the verdict returned by the majority of the 15,000,000 voters of the United States. The Republican candidate has repeated Mr. Roosevelt's feat of carrying every northern state, giving him a clear majority in the electoral college of 113 over William Jennings Bryan, the Democratic candidate. Mr. Taft will receive 298 electoral votes to Mr. Bryan's 185. The latter also lost West Virginia, which went to Mr. Roosevelt four years ago, but has gained the one electoral vote which Maryland gave to the Republican candidate in 1900. Oklahoma, the state created since the last presidential election, has enrolled itself, as expected, in the Democratic column.

The states considered doubtful before the election have gone as follows: Maryland, Democratic; Indiana, Republican; Nebraska, Democratic; New York, Republican; Ohio, Republican, and West Virginia, Democratic. In most of these states the vote is close, especially in New York, where Charles Evans Hughes, Republican, has been re-elected governor by 54,000 votes. Taft has carried the state by 100,000.

Results in the East.
Pennsylvania has gone Republican by 250,000 majority and New Jersey by 75,000, the figures in 1904 being 505,519 and 80,598 respectively. Connecticut is Republican save in a few cities and towns, but Congressman George L. Lilley, the Republican candidate for governor, ran behind Mr. Taft.The lower house of the Sixty-first congress will be Republican by about its old majority. The senate will remain Republican. Speaker Cannon has won his fight for re-election by his usual majority.
Most of the great cities of the country have gone Republican, with the exception of New York and Chicago. In each of these cases, however, the rural Republican majority has been sufficiently large to offset the Democratic urban vote. St. Louis has gone Republican, while the rest of Missouri is heavily Democratic.

Central States for Taft.

Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, the great central states, with an aggregate of sixty-five electoral votes, have gone Republican despite the fight made to bring them into the Democratic column. Governor Deneen in Illinois, Republican candidate for re-election, retained his seat, but Thomas R. Marshall, a Democrat, will succeed him in Indiana, and Harmon, Democrat will succeed Harris in Ohio.

The Republican hope of carrying Kentucky proved vain in spite of the victory of Wilson, Republican, in the gubernatorial contest last year. The greater part of the state's congressional delegation will be Democrats.

The Pacific coast states, California, Washington and Oregon, have given their votes to the Republican candidate, but Nevada, which voted against Parker in 1904, gave its votes this year to Bryan. Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota are again Republican, but Governor Johnson's personal popularity has sufficed to seat him again in the gubernatorial chair of the North Star state. Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and in fact the entire West and Northwest are Republican, but, as noted above, by lowered majorities.

The South Still Solid.

The "solid South" is still solidly Democratic. Mr. Bryan polling the usual large majorities. Only in Maryland has the Republican party made serious inroads on the Democratic vote, and in that state not sufficiently to change the result. Delaware, about which some doubt was expressed before the election, has gone Republican. The New England states have gone for Taft and have elected Republican governors, but the vote in Rhode Island, where the Democrats made a strong fight, is very close. In Massachusetts the Independence party candidate for governor made a good showing, though running far behind the vote of Thomas L. Hisgen last year.

New York city has been carried by Taft, the first time the Republicans have carried the greater city since 1896.

PENNSYLVANIA IS REPUBLICAN

Party's Vote Cut Down in Cities Where Labor Element Is Strong.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Pennsylvania has gone Republican by a majority of 250,000. In 1904 Roosevelt carried the state by 505,519, and two years ago Stuart, Republican, was elected governor by 48,435. This city, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Altoona and other cities have given Mr. Taft pluralities, but Scranton, Wilkesbarre and towns in which the so-called "labor" vote is strong have gone Democratic.

The election in Pennsylvania turned almost entirely an national issues, the highest state officer voted for being a judge of the superior court. For that office William D. Porter, Republican, has been elected by a majority of about 50,000 over Webster Grim, Democrat.

The vote in the country districts was, as usual, heavily Republican. The state's representation will again be Republican in the Sixty-first congress, the Democrats having gained only one seat. The figures will be as follows: Republicans, 24; Democrats, 8.

BRYAN CARRIES HOME STATE

Democrats Win in Nebraska by Small Majority.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Nebraska has gratified the hopes of William Jennings Bryan by going Democratic.

Governor George L. Sheldon, Republican, has been re-elected by a majority of 10,000. The personal popularity of Mr. Bryan in his home state and of Mr. Sheldon accounts for the difference between the governor's vote and that of Mr. Taft. The state's present congressional delegation, five Republicans and one Democrat, stands.

Bryan Silent on Election.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—"I do not desire to discuss the result of the election at the present time," said Mr. Bryan after the returns were received here. "At a later date I shall probably have something to say, but now I must beg to be excused." The Democratic candidate's own city gave Mr. Bryan a majority.

CONNECTICUT FOR TAFT

Carries State, but by Greatly Reduced Majority.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Despite the efforts made to place Connecticut in the Democratic column, the state has given its vote to the Republican candidate. Mr. Taft's majority, however, fell far below that of Mr. Roosevelt four years ago. Congressman Lilley has been elected governor by 5,000 despite the opposition to him on account of the submarine boat matter and the opposition to him in his own party. Five Republican congressmen have been elected, and the state legislature will be Republican.

The leaders of both parties in the state expressed great interest in the growth of the Socialist vote, which increased from 2,932 in 1906 to 5,250 this year.

Close Vote in Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Colorado, which gave Mr. Roosevelt a majority of 34,582 in 1904, has gone Democratic, but by less than 5,000. Jesse F. McDonald, however, has been elected governor on the Republican ticket, and three Republican representatives have been chosen.

North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—The Democratic national ticket has carried North Carolina by a majority of 30,000, the Republican ticket making gains throughout the state. W. W. Kitchin has been elected governor.

The Electoral Vote.

The electoral vote is as follows:

| | Bryan | Taft |
|----------------|-------|------|
| Alabama | 11 | — |
| Arkansas | 9 | — |
| California | — | 10 |
| Colorado | 5 | — |

INDIANA SPLITS
ITS BALLOTSWhile Electing Taft It Chooses
a Democratic Governor.

RESULT OF A BITTER CONTEST

The Election of Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic Candidate for Governor, Over James E. Watson, Was Offset for the Republicans by the Latter Carrying the State's Electoral Vote for Taft by a Very Narrow Majority — Indianapolis Elected Complete Democratic County Ticket.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—For the first time since Thomas A. Hendricks was elected governor on the Democratic state ticket and U. S. Grant received the electoral vote of the state for the Republican national ticket, Indiana has given a plurality to the Republican candidate for president, William H. Taft, and elected Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for governor. Whether Marshall will carry the rest of the state ticket with him is a matter of conjecture. According to the latest estimate Mr. Taft received a plurality of about 15,000, and Mr. Marshall was victorious over James E. Watson, Republican candidate, by about 8,000.

The congressional representation from this state will probably be seven Democrats and six Republicans. The latest returns credit the Democrats with six and the Republicans with five members, with two districts in doubt—the Fifth and Seventh, with chances favoring the Democratic candidates.

The legislature is in doubt. Marion county with its twelve members of the legislature went heavily Democratic for the county ticket and carried down with it the Republican legislative candidates and possibly Congressman Jesse Overstreet. One of the Republican leaders who has been looking after the election of state legislators, conceded that the law-making body is very close, but he adhered to the opinion that the lead the Republicans have in the seventeen holdover senators will save it to the Republicans on joint ballot and insure the re-election of Senator James A. Hemenway.

Among the things ascribed by the Republican leaders for the defeat of Mr. Watson, the probable loss of the legislature, possible defeat of Congressman Overstreet, and the election of a Democratic county ticket, are the liquor question and the labor vote. Just previous to the election Governor J. Frank Hanly called a special session of the legislature, and a county local option law was passed after a bitter fight with the "liberal" element. This law was approved by Mr. Watson and the Republican candidates in their speeches, and in the election Tuesday that element worked for the success of the Democratic state and county ticket. There was also much agitation against what was termed "county graft" against the county officials of Marion county, who were Republicans and this was an additional aid to the Democratic candidates.

The Republicans have carried the First, Sixth, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth congressional districts; the Democrats the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, and Twelfth. The Eleventh is doubtful.
